1. Claims 1, 4-5 and 14 are objected to because of the following informalities:

a) The term "position" in claim 1, line 5 should be changed to --positions-- for consistency.

b) The term "a" in front of the phrase "a compact disc" in claim 14, line 2 should be changed to --the--.

c) The term "a" in front of the phrase "a disc" in claim 14, line 2 should be changed to --said--.

Appropriate correction is required.

2. The drawings are objected to because hand writing for "letters" and "numbers" in the drawings are not clear. Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as "amended." If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either "Replacement Sheet" or "New Sheet" pursuant to 37 CFR 1.121(d). If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent, or on an international application by another who has fulfilled the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of section 371(c) of this title before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent.

The changes made to 35 U.S.C. 102(e) by the American Inventors Protection Act of 1999 (AIPA) and the Intellectual Property and High Technology Technical Amendments Act of 2002 do not apply when the reference is a U.S. patent resulting directly or indirectly from an international application filed before November 29, 2000. Therefore, the prior art date of the reference is determined under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) prior to the amendment by the AIPA (pre-AIPA 35 U.S.C. 102(e)).

4. Claims 1, 9 and 14 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Cummins et al

The applied reference has a common inventor (Erik Hagstrom) with the instant application. Based upon the earlier effective U.S. filing date of the reference, it constitutes prior art under 35 U.S.C. 102(e). This rejection under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) might be overcome either by a showing under 37 CFR 1.132 that any invention disclosed but not claimed in the reference was derived from the inventor of this application and is thus not the invention “by another,” or by an appropriate showing under 37 CFR 1.131.

Cummins et al discloses a drive 10 for a tray assembly 22 movable between extended and retracted positions, figure 3 inherently shows a support frame having rails and guides for movement longitudinally along the rails between the extended and retracted positions; and figure 1 inherently shows drive members on opposite sides of the tray assembly from both of its sides adjacent the rails between the extended and retracted positions, all as set forth in claims 1 and 9.

Regarding claim 14, Cummins et al discloses that the processor comprises a printer to print on a compact disc when a disc is on the tray and the tray is in its processing position.

5. Claims 2-8 and 10-13 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

6. Claims 15-17 are allowed.

7. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Allen T. Cao whose telephone number is (571) 272-7569. The examiner can normally be reached on Mon - Thurs (7:30 - 6:00).
